Divine Mercy Sunday Second Sunday of Easter

The readings this week are so beautiful and simple. They remind us that we are children of almighty God and because of this shared patrimony, all we have we must be willing to share with others. All is gift. One of the best ways to love God and to make a return for His gifts is to evangelize through works of mercy, both spiritual and corporal. When we understand that we are begotten by God as His adopted sons and daughters, we conquer the world, as St. John tells us. When we remember our identity as children of God, we see Him in our brothers and sisters. We are impelled to bring the joy of the Gospel to our fellow men in service and charity. Today, we also remember the great mercy of God as revealed to St. Faustina. Let us always return to this infinite mercy our perfect Father offers to us and share it with those we meet, learning from our mistakes and sins and seeking to live as more obedient and loving children.

Garden Committee

The Garden Committee invites you to lend a helping hand with our spring garden projects. Please call the rectory office if you can help us. Any and all help will be greatly appreciated.

A Catholic Perspective on End-of-Life Issues

Please see the insert in this weekend's bulletin about this free seminar being offered at St. Joseph Church in Farmington on Saturday, April 28, 2018, between the hours of 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Knights of Columbus

The Knights of Columbus would like to thank everyone for a very successful fish fry season. As you know, we use funds raised in this effort to help families afford Catholic education. This year, we fed over 3,500 people so we will be able to continue giving substantial support to our parishioners who attend Catholic schools. Thank you for dining with us in support of such a good cause.

Welcome

It is with great joy that we welcome into our parish family Tammy Stewart who has completed her preparations at the Easter Vigil and who now shares fully in our Faith. Please keep her in your prayers and may God continue to bless her on her spiritual journey of Faith.

Stewardship Bible Reflections

"The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own..." – ACTS 4:32

All that we are and all that we have is a gift from God! Think of your family, your friends, your talents, your abilities and your money – these are all gifts from God! We aren't really owners of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has blessed us with.

Saint Stanislaus

Born in Szczepanow near Kraków on July 26, 1030, he was ordained a priest after being educated in the cathedral schools of Gniezno, then capital of Poland, and at Paris. He was appointed preacher and archdeacon to the bishop of Kraków, where his eloquence and example brought about real conversion in many of his penitents, both clergy and laity. He became bishop of Kraków in 1072. During an expedition against the Grand Duchy of Kiev, Stanislaus became involved in the political situation of Poland. Known for his outspokenness, he aimed his attacks at the evils of the peasantry and the king, especially the unjust wars and immoral acts of King Boleslaus II. The king first excused himself, then made a show of penance, then relapsed into his old ways. Stanislaus continued his open opposition in spite of charges of treason and threats of death, finally excommunicating the king. Enraged, the latter ordered soldiers to kill the bishop. When they refused, the king killed Stanislaus with his own hands.

Thank You

Our Knights of Columbus would like to thank everyone who supported the Food for Families Initiative, specifically, the "40 Cans for Lent Food Drive." Our Food Pantry reported it was a huge success. Your continued support of our Food Pantry is appreciated.

MILESTONES

Look for future MILESTONES to appear in the bulletin in the weeks to come. If you have a noteworthy event that you're celebrating, please contact the rectory so we can publish it and share in your celebration of life!
