Dynamic Catholic, Alive! –

“Thus it is written that the Messiah would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day” (Luke 24:46). The Church celebrates Easter as the feasts of feasts. This celebration of the resurrection of Christ continues until Pentecost, which is seen as the birth of the Church. “And if Christ has not been raised, then empty (too) is our preaching; empty, too, your faith” (1 Corinthians 15:14). Have a blessed Easter! archstl.org/dynamic

Easter Joy

*Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you...
John 14:27*

May His endless love rise each day within your heart. HAPPY EASTER.

Father Bill, Deacon Mark, Deacon Don and the Pastoral Staff

Easter Sunday

Easter Sunday, April 5, 2015

Dear Faithful of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, I offer to you my deepest greetings of joy and peace on the Solemnity of the Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ – Happy Easter!

Easter is to the Church year what Sunday is to each week – a highlight of rest and rejoicing. Its vivid symbols of fire, water and exultant song remind us that Christ has overcome sin and death. Because of that we know, in the words of Pope Francis, that when everything is said and done, we are infinitely loved by God.

*Let us pray that the light of Christ will shine in our hearts this Easter, and reach out to others through us. We know that our Savior lives. Let us share with others the joy of knowing that they are loved by God!
I ask that you keep in mind that the collection for Regina Cleri, the residence for our retired priests, is today. You know how generously the retired priests served you, and how you counted on them. Now, in turn, they count on you, and are grateful for your generous support and prayers.*

I pray these are days of blessing for you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson Archbishop of St. Louis

St. Vincent DePaul

During April, please bring cereal and cake mix for the St. Vincent DePaul Society Food Pantry.

Ladies of St. Joseph & St. Anne

The Ladies of St. Joseph & St. Anne will meet on April 14th, at 9:00 a.m. following the morning Mass with Rosary. We will plan our first annual parish appreciation picnic to be held on June 7, 2015.

Thank you to all the ladies that participated in the World Day of Prayer and made it a great success.
We collected $157 which will be donated to women in crisis in the Bahamas. Next year, the host will be the First Congregational Church of Bonne Terre representing the women of Cuba.

St. Joseph Parish Yard Sale

Our parish yard sale will be held on Friday and Saturday, May 1st and May 2nd between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Deacon's Corner

“Woman, why are you weeping?” Easter is the most important day in history; a day that the law of death was overruled and it no longer has a hold on any of us and yet, one of Jesus’s closest friends weeps not with joy but in fear and in suffering at what she thought was lost. It is only when she is called by name that she hears his voice and opens her heart to the joy of the resurrection.

While on my spring retreat I sat down for lunch with a retired priest now living as a hermit in the hills of the Ozarks; alone yet not alone, for he found that when one opens his heart fully to God he is never alone.

We spoke of the language of God. How so many have forgotten how to speak it and how to understand it; it has become a foreign language unrecognizable because many have come to think that it is heard with the ears and yet those who know the language know that it is heard with the heart and soul. It is heard in the deepest part of the interior castle so that the world cannot get to it. But it is there for all who desire to hear it and follow it.

On this Easter Sunday take time and listen. Jesus calls each of us by name. It is up to each one of us to quiet ourselves and our busy lives, with all the noise and distractions and truly listen. On this Easter Sunday let us open our hearts and hear our names being called, rise take up our crosses without fear of death; know in our hearts He has defeated death and rejoice in the resurrection. Alleluia! Alleluia!

May the peace of Christ be in you, Deacon Mark

Thank you Lord Jesus, Come Holy Spirit

FRENCH VILLAGE, MISSOURI

Due to the lack of the help needed to fill the major positions in the picnic, St. Anne’s Church will not have their annual picnic this year.
