St. Joseph – with 297 registered parishioners and 73 surveys completed. A rating of “9.28” – this rating indicates that the viability of the parish is good.

Step 3 and Step 4 involves the opinions of both parishes regarding ten assets and ten deficits and the important questions for Determining Future Parish Structures.

Deacon's Corner

We are reminded in today's readings that as followers of Christ we are called to live out the gospels in all that we do. To fully take on the scriptures in our lives; with a clear distinction made by Jesus, we are not to discard the Commandments, but to live them out. In all that we do, we are to hold to them through the teachings of Jesus, not only his words, but how he lived them out.

The more we know Jesus, the more he becomes a part of what we do. In the weeks to come we hope to begin a study class, a "liturgy club" if you will. Meeting to study the upcoming Sunday readings; to explore how they fit in our lives, to help them come alive in our daily activities; but more important to help "Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls."

How often could we answer what the readings were for last Sunday? I have to admit, if someone just walked up and asked me, I would have to think for a second and I often spend hours preparing just to proclaim the Gospel. St. Paul is calling us today to fully live out our lives as followers of Christ to open our hearts and minds, to hold close the Commandments, especially putting God before all things and to love our neighbors as we do ourselves.

I hope some of you will take part in the coming weeks in the "liturgy club" but if you can't, please take time before Mass, read the readings, open your heart and mind to allow the word to be heard and then go out and live them, be "doers of the word" in all that you do.

May the peace of Christ be in you,
Deacon Mark

Thank you Lord Jesus, Come Holy Spirit
