Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – What is Prayer?

Prayer is, first and foremost, a heartfelt conversation and living relationship with God. “Whether we realize it or not, prayer is the encounter of God’s thirst with ours. God thirsts that we may thirst for Him” (CCC, 256). Prayer is the first essential element of a serious spiritual formation process. “There is no substitute for a daily commitment to prayer” (Archbishop Carlson). How does your prayer life stand right now? archstl.org/dynamic

Thank You

A special thank you to all of the families of St. Joseph and St. Anne parishes who supported our Christmas Giving Tree this year. Your generosity provided the young children of our St. Vincent de Paul ministry clients with a very much appreciated Christmas gift. One hundred and fifty gifts were donated and distributed to young children. We especially want to thank Paula Pace, Deborah Pace, Theresa Pace and Jim and Betty Novotny for organizing and making this gift giving event possible for these children.

Deacon's Corner

Have you ever asked yourself whether God has called you and you chose to ignore him? Like receiving that call and looking at caller ID, seeing who it is and knowing that they are going to be asking you for something, you simply do not answer it letting it go to voice message.

Well I wonder throughout our days how many times God calls on us and we simply allow it to go to voice mail?

Samuel in today's reading tried to do this, but our Lord is persistent and I have no doubt that throughout our lives God calls us and for some he is still calling, being persistent as ever. Our God is a determined God, each day he chips away at us; he keeps working on us, calling us in an ever so gentle way. He has all the time in the world.

God calls each and every one of us to take part in his plan, to be part of his body, to answer his call. He invites us all to come and see where he lives, to open our hearts to follow him, we need only remind ourselves of His importance in our lives and not dismiss or ignore his call but open our hearts to hear the ring, feel the vibration and have the courage to say "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening."

May the Peace of Christ be in you,

Deacon Mark

Thank you Lord Jesus, Come Holy Spirit

Stewardship Reflections

"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?'" – John 1:38

What are you looking for? Are you wasting your time looking for the material comforts of the world? Or, is your heart longing for something deeper that can only be found by spending time with God? Take time, each day, in silence and ask the Lord what it is that He wants you to do.
