Deacon's Corner

When was the last time you have been to confession? Today's readings remind of the importance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We should remember that once a year is the minimum, as such we should find ourselves in need of sanctifying grace, then the place to turn is not the world but to our Lord through confession.

I was reminded this past week of a great story which holds true and maybe that is why it is one to remember. A rich man sitting next to a poor woman who has nothing; he has all the money any one could ever want, she has lost all and is now facing the loss of her memories as time passes from her. The man asks, "Why do you hold onto the idea of God, you have nothing, I have everything?"

The woman simply responds as she gazes out the window, "Sometimes the devil allows people to live a life free of trouble because he does not want them turning to God. It is still like a jail cell except it is so nice and comfy that there is no reason to leave. The door is wide open until one day time runs out, the cell door slams shut and suddenly it's too late."

"Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." Let us take time and get right with the Lord, do not let the world settle you into comfort walled in by sin thinking all is right with the world until that day comes when the door is slammed shut. Peace will only truly come from the Lord, in following his way.

May the peace of Christ be in you,
Deacon Mark
Thank you Lord Jesus, Come Holy Spirit
