Dynamic Catholic, Alive! –

“The liturgy as the sacred action par excellence is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed and it is likewise the font from which all her power flows” (Compendium, 219). This description shows the importance of attending Mass every Sunday. In the earthly liturgy we are united with the heavenly liturgy.

Parish Planning and Viability

You are invited to participate in the Parish Planning and Viability Study on Saturday, June 27th and Sunday, June 28th. It is very important that you help us by filling out these forms because this data will be used by the Archdiocese to determine the future viability and stability of our parishes. This survey will take about one hour to fill out and must be completed in our Church halls. They may not be taken home. Coffee and donuts will be served in the Church hall of each parish. We need your input in order to ensure the future viability and stability of St. Joseph and St. Anne Parishes.

Stewardship Reflections

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive good or evil, according to what he has done in the body.”

- 2 Corinthians 5:10

We are all accountable for the gifts God has given us on Earth – our time, talent and treasure. One day each of us will be asked by God what we did with those gifts. How will you respond?

Welcome

If you are visiting, we are honored by your presence and welcome you to worship with us. Or if you have been away from the Church for a while, we sincerely welcome you HOME. Please call us if you would like more information on becoming a member of our Parish and we will be glad to help you. We hope you will come again.

Deacon's Corner

What will be your recompense? This last weekend at our first parish BBQ I heard many great conversations. But, the one that stuck with me throughout the day, maybe because I was already trying to work out this week's Corner, was that we have only one life to live, to make the most of it. Well I would say had I been invited into the conversation, is our life a mortal one?

The body which we are given is mortal and as such we should treat it as such and also, we should experience that which God calls us to take part in. We should be “courageous” as St. Paul tells us today in living out our faith. In putting our faith into practice in our daily lives; do we live our lives in such a way that pleases God or one that pleases ourselves?

Our lives are not our own, not just this life here on earth but our lives beyond this world. The Saints works did not stop when they departed this place and for those who serve God we should know that our lives will not end with our death. For those who have done good, many still here will call on you to intercede on their behalf and for those who have done evil, rest will surely not ever come to you.

The next time you think to yourself, why should I help that person, why should I waste my time, how dare they take pleasure in my work when it was not intended for them, ask yourself “Is what I am doing for my own satisfaction or to serve the Lord?” And if it is the latter, then his will be done, for my life from now until the end of time is His.

May the peace of Christ be in you,

Deacon Mark

Thank you Lord Jesus, Come Holy Spirit

Thank You!

Thank you to all of our parishioners who participated in our first parish barbeque picnic last Sunday. It was a great success and there was plenty of good food for everyone. We look forward to seeing you at next year's barbeque.
