A Prayer for Fathers

Heavenly Father, I give thanks for the gift of fatherhood and the gift of my family. Through the intercession of St. Joseph, to whom you entrusted the Blessed Virgin Mary, model of religious life, and Your Son Jesus, our Eternal High Priest, I pray that You give me the grace necessary to be the model of faith, devotion, and virtue that You call me to be for my family. Help me to make the sacrifices necessary to build up the domestic church in my home. Grant that my wife and children may come to know You, to love You and to serve You. May my children discover their vocations in life and find in me sure support.

Bingo

No Bingo on Thursday, June 08, 2017.

St. Vincent DePaul

St. Vincent DePaul Society thanks parishioners for their donations. During June, please bring pork & beans, pasta sauce, and jiffy mix. Thank you.

Thank You

The Bonne Terre Knights of Columbus would like to thank all who attended for again supporting our Lenten fish fry fund raiser. Our annual effort has historically supported Catholic education. This year, we served over 3,000 pounds of fish to more than 3,000 patrons. This resulted in our being able to donate $9,150 to aid our parishioners in pursuing a Catholic Education. Your continued support of Catholic Education and our local council of the Knights of Columbus are greatly appreciated.

Parish Barbecue

The parish barbecue on Sunday, June 25, 2017, has been cancelled and may be rescheduled at another time due to Father Bill's rehabilitation schedule.

Vow Renewal/Blessing Today

The Knights of Columbus would like to invite all married couples to join in the Vow Renewal/Blessing today. Please join us for a social after the 10:00 a.m. Mass in the Church hall downstairs.

Festival Committee Chairpersons

There will be a meeting for St. Joseph Festival Committee chairpersons Tuesday, June 20th at 6:30 p.m.

4 Things Every Catholic Parent
Should Strive to Make Sure
Their Children Know Before Leaving Home

You are loved.

It has been proven over and over that young adults who know beyond any doubt that their parents love them are less likely to engage in risky behavior, including premarital sex, drugs and alcohol. This doesn't mean you will condone all their choices or bail them out of every difficult situation, but it does mean that in a changing world, your love will be a steadfast constant they can rely on.

Know your faith.

The "real world" is going to challenge our children's Catholic beliefs. Catholics with a weak knowledge of the teachings of the Church often fall victim to evangelization by other faiths or, worse, fall away from faith completely. Even if your children have had the best Catholic education, don't assume they fully understand what they've been taught. Take time to discuss the faith. Listen to your children and ask pointed questions.

The Church is your home.

Make sure your children know that they may be leaving your family home, but they never leave their Church home. When bouts of homesickness threaten (as they probably will), a nearby Catholic Church and the Mass can be a touchstone of safety in what can feel like an impersonal world.

Pray daily.

As important as friends are, friendship with God is even more important. Our children need to understand that friendship with God requires time and energy. While it is true that God is always there waiting for us, and that God does, in fact, take the initiative to contact us, we need to spend time every day in prayer in order to know and understand God's will for our lives.
