Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – Full, Conscious, & Active Participation

The Second Vatican Council's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy sought to promote full, conscious, and active participation in the sacred liturgy. What is full, conscious, and active participation? It doesn't necessarily mean being a reader, usher, or extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, although these things are good. Full, Conscious, and active participation means plugging into the beauty and truth of the liturgy through increased holiness and solemn prayer. archstl.org/dynamic

Parish Planning and Viability June 27th & June 28th

You are invited to participate in the Parish Planning and Viability Study this weekend on Saturday, June 27th and Sunday, June 28th. It is very important that you help us by filling out these forms because this data will be used by the Archdiocese to determine the future viability and stability of our parishes. This survey will take about one hour to fill out and must be completed in our Church halls. They may not be taken home. Coffee and donuts will be served in the Church hall of each parish. We need your input in order to ensure the future viability and stability of St. Joseph and St. Anne Parishes.

Church Cleaning Team #1 – S. Byington, L. Johnson

St. Vincent DePaul

St. Vincent DePaul Society thanks parishioners for their donations last month. During June, please bring canned soups.

Stewardship Reflections

“...as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality.” - 2 CORINTHIANS 8:14

Not only are we responsible for our own lives, but we are responsible for the lives of those around us. Not only is it important that we grow, nurture and share our gifts, but we should teach our children this same lesson and encourage others to do the same.

Please Support

Whenever possible, please support the advertisers on the back of our bulletin. Thank them and let them know you saw their ad. If you would like to place an advertisement for your business on the back of our weekly Sunday bulletin, please call the Parish office at 358-2112 as soon as possible.

Welcome

If you are visiting, we are honored by your presence and welcome you to worship with us. Or if you have been away from the Church for a while, we sincerely welcome you HOME. Please call us if you would like more information on becoming a member of our Parish and we will be glad to help you. We hope you will come again.

Reminder

If you have a change of address, a new landline telephone number or a new cell phone number, please notify the Parish Office in order that we might update our records.

Peter's Pence Collection

The Peter's Pence Collection this weekend unites us in solidarity with Pope Francis and his works of charity toward those in need.

Deacon's Corner

“By the envy of the devil, death entered the world.” And as they say, the rest is history. God loves us and desires only good things for us, but he is also our Father and as such, He desires us to be the best that we can be, to be that which he intended us to be.

Death or destruction and decay in our lives make us step back and examine our lives. When someone passes, especially suddenly you examine your life; when things are going along smoothly and then financial challenges hit you, it causes you to examine your actions; or when a relationship that you thought was fine all of a sudden hits a bump in the road or worse hits a wall resulting in destruction or in a sense death of that relationship, these are times that we must step back examine and turn to our Father in prayer and contemplation.

If we do so prayerfully then our examination does not turn outwardly in attacking others or asking God, “Lord why me” but, inwardly in contemplation to see what we can do now based on what we did or did not do then to learn from it and improve ourselves and the “quality of life.”

God wants what is best for all of us and he only creates perfection. Whether rich or poor by the world standards and the devils, God wants us all to be rich in spirit so that we see what is of value and what matters most in bringing us peace, joy, and happiness. This Sunday take time, reflect, open your heart, mind, and eyes to the Lord and see your life as a child of the Most High God.

May the peace of Christ be in you,

Deacon Mark

Thank you Lord Jesus, Come Holy Spirit
