Deacon's Corner

Our actions affect others. Have you ever thought just how much what you say and do affect those you may not even know? In today's Gospel Jesus is transfigured before Peter, James, and John. Why is that? Why did Jesus pick those three of the twelve?

To help our thoughts on this along, think about this simple act; I go into a bakery one morning to get a cup of coffee and a bagel, you are in line behind me. You know exactly what you want; I on the other hand like them all. When it is my turn I choose the last remaining cheese bagel, the very kind you get every morning. I pay and leave. You on the other hand now are faced with throwing off your morning routine and have to order something different. If you are not at peace, if you are not seeing the big picture in life, that simple act that I have done now puts you into a tail spin which results in throwing off your whole day and affecting those whom you come in contact with.

Peter, James, and John had plans in their lives and then they encountered Jesus. At that moment they dropped everything and followed him, they planned their lives again and at his death again it changed. Peter wanted to spend his life with the Lord, James and John wanted to see him rule and sit at his side. Jesus knew the passion and resurrection would change this. He had to put them straight, to show them his true place, his true nature. He exposed them to the light so that they might have peace. Jesus dwells in us all, remember your responsibility when you act.

May the Peace of Christ be in you,
Deacon Mark

Thank you Lord Jesus, Come Holy Spirit
