TO THE FAITHFUL OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The annual Easter collection for Regina Cleri will be taken up in parishes throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis on Easter Sunday, April 5, 2015. Financial support for Regina Cleri primarily comes from this annual Easter collection and the Annual Catholic Appeal.

Under the guidance of Cardinal Joseph Ritter, Regina Cleri opened as a home for retired archdiocesan priests in 1959. Cardinal Ritter was considered ahead of his time for opening Regina Cleri. Regina Cleri offers our priests the opportunity to retire from service and continue to live in an active faith community.

Although retired, many of the priests at Regina Cleri continue to assist in parishes, our archdiocesan schools, Catholic organizations, nursing homes, and hospitals - celebrating Mass, assisting with Reconciliation, visiting the sick, and serving as spiritual leaders/counselors.

Please consider supporting the retired priests of the Archdiocese of St. Louis. These priests have served our archdiocese well and deserve both our prayers and financial support. We are very fortunate that the Archdiocese of St. Louis is able to provide excellent and proper care for our priests at Regina Cleri.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson

Archbishop of St. Louis

Deacon's Corner

“Behold, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, humble and riding on a donkey...and he shall command peace to the nations” (Zech 9:9-10). So, why ride a donkey; the colt?

The classic pictures of triumphant leaders, commanders of great armies; Caesar, Napoleon, our very own George Washington; all of them depicted on great white steeds, in full uniform being hailed by their men. Our Lord, the Son of God the Most High; no greater is He that walked among men and yet, to fulfill the prophecy he must according to worldly views lower himself.

But did he or did he show once more his true greatness? Did he show to the world that true power cannot be seen by the eyes of man?

Today the world is on fire with violence. The number of lives lost to it, abortion, the death penalty, murder, war; the loss of life to violence like never before in the history of man. Our so called leaders would tell you that we must fight violence with violence. Today our Lord reminds us that the eyes of man are blind. His way is the true way, His way is peace. Never let the sun set with violence on your heart. Make peace a priority every day, so that Christ may once more walk among men, leading us.

May the peace of Christ be in you,

Deacon Mark

Thank you Lord Jesus, Come Holy Spirit
