Deacon’s Corner

“Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity,” these are fruits of the Holy Spirit as we are reminded by St. Paul today to urge us to “live by the Spirit.” So the question then is, how often do we do so, daily, weekly, yearly, never?

To love, often mistaken as a feeling or attraction to another, we as followers of Christ are to love unconditionally as Christ loved us and his Father loves him (Agape). Through our charity of loving our neighbor as ourselves for the love of God we bear much fruit.

Through joy, the pleasure experienced by one who knows Christ; most intense and perfect in heaven. If you are not feeling joy then one would ask, are you experiencing Christ in your life?

Peace often considered occurring when you are void of happenings in your life, but in the case of following Christ peace comes through the cross of Christ. Peace therefore is found in living out the life of a Christian.

To have patience; to have fortitude or to endure for the suffering of life’s challenges in living out the teachings of Christ; to embrace your cross with silence.

To have kindness, to not return ill will with ill will but to return with generosity and care. And last generosity, to give without expecting return. To do so is to live the life of a follower of Christ.

May the Peace of Christ be in you,
Deacon Mark

Thank you Lord Jesus, Come Holy Spirit

Stewardship Reflections

“There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.” - 1 Corinthians 12:4-6
