Dynamic Catholic, Alive! –

Only 7% of Catholics are Dynamic Catholics. Dynamic Catholics embrace the fullness of discipleship through prayer, study, generosity, and evangelization. What if we doubled or tripled the number of Dynamic Catholics in the Archdiocese of St. Louis? Imagine if we were all pursuing discipleship with intentionality: “By opening ourselves to the graces of the Holy Spirit that make for deification—through deep and lasting spiritual formation—I believe we could change the world” (Archbishop Carlson).

Congratulations Father Bill

This year Father Bill Baier celebrates his 33rd anniversary of ordination to the Priesthood. He was ordained to the Priesthood by the late Archbishop John L. May on June 5, 1982. Let us keep Father Bill in our prayers as he continues to work for the greater honor and glory of God and may God bless him for his generous and devoted service.

Deacon's Corner

Do you remember the story of Tom Sawyer who was ordered to paint his mother's fence? It was a long fence and would take all day. But, as he went to paint he did so with such enthusiasm and joy that as other children passed they wanted to experience what he was experiencing, to the point that they even paid him to paint the fence.

Today many challenge the number of practicing Catholics and worry about the future of the Church. Maybe the reason our numbers are lacking is that coming and going, we show very little enthusiasm regarding spending time with our Lord.

I wonder how many would follow us to Mass to find out what all the excitement was all about if we showed the same enthusiasm going to Mass as we do a Cardinals game. Maybe this week we start getting excited about coming to Mass and while here let that excitement turn to joy and as we depart let that joy spread to everything we do and maybe next week someone might even ask if they could come along with us.

And if we are lucky, maybe what we will hear more in the coming months and years is "I baptize you in the name of the Father, and the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." And we may live out our lives "teaching them to observe all that I (Jesus) commanded" by living our lives to the fullest.

May the Peace of Christ be in you,

Deacon Mark

Thank you Lord Jesus, Come Holy Spirit
