All Saints Day

Retirement Fund for Religious

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,
In the United States today, numerous Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests past age 70 benefit from the Retirement Fund for Religious collection. Donations to this special collection provide funding that helps religious communities care for senior members and plan for long-term retirement needs.

On the weekend of November 1, all parishes in the Archdiocese of St. Louis will take up the annual collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious, an opportunity for you to acknowledge the thousands of senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests for their faithful service.

Whether or not we realize it, we are all beneficiaries of the tremendous contributions these women and men have made to the Church in the United States. Through hard work, prayer, and sacrifice, they built Catholic schools and hospitals, initiated programs to promote social justice, and ministered to the neediest among us.

Today, many religious communities struggle to care for their elderly members. Elder sisters, brothers, and religious order priests dedicated their lives to service and prayer, and some lack adequate retirement savings. Increasing health-care costs and decreased income make it difficult to provide necessary medical care, costly medications and basic services.

Would you please consider making a contribution to the Retirement Fund for Religious? In addition, let us join together in grateful prayer for the generous religious who have served the Church in the United States.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson
Archbishop of St. Louis

Deacon's Corner

Peace be with you!

Today we celebrate All Saints Day; in this celebration we honor all the saints in Heaven. There is a story that I once told in a homily. Thomas Merton was walking down the street one day and his good friend Robert Lax asked him what he wanted to be. Merton was new to the Catholic faith, his response was he wanted to be a good Catholic. Lax's reply was to simply say, "Wrong answer." What did he say after that?

What Robert Lax said to Thomas Merton, a man later to become a Trappist Monk (an ordained Roman Catholic priest) and the most read 20th Century author on Christianity was what all of us should consider on this All Saints Day. Lax looked him right in the eyes and said, "What you should say is, I want to be a saint."

Let us say it together, "I want to be a saint." I bet some of you reading this got a little nervous about thinking it. You are already trying to talk yourself out of it. Well ask yourself this; do you want to go to Heaven? If the answer is yes, the only way to get there is to be a saint. It is a private club, only saints are allowed in. So now let me ask you; what do you want to be?

Almost forgot, God left us a guide book. It is better than any GPS you can buy at Walmart; it's called the Bible (Basic Instructions Before Leaving Earth). FYI, it also shows how to go directly to that other place, that's the one not filled with saints.

May the peace of Christ be in you,

Deacon Mark

Thank you Lord Jesus, Come Holy Spirit
