Church Cleaning Team #1 – S. Byington, L. Johnson

St. Vincent DePaul

St. Vincent DePaul Society thanks parishioners for their donations. During October, please bring tuna, soup and diapers. Thank you.

Trunk N' Treat

Please see the flyer insert this weekend for our annual Trunk N' Treat party which will be held on Sunday, October 30th between the hours of 4:00 pm and 6:00 pm.

Funeral Masses and Weddings

We are thankful for the services of our Pastor, Organists, and Servers who assist us with the celebration of weddings and Funeral Masses. It is customary for the Parish to receive a fee for the use of the Church, a stipend for the celebrant, a fee for the organist and a gift for each of the servers.

Follow-Up Festival Meeting

All St. Joseph Festival Chairpersons and interested parishioners are invited to attend a follow-up meeting on Wednesday, November 2nd at 6:30 p.m. Tom Willette has submitted his resignation as our volunteer Festival Chairman. We would like to thank Tom for his 20 plus years of dedication and hard work organizing our Festival year after year. Please let us know if you are able to volunteer as the Festival Chairman for the year 2017.

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! –

There's really only one way to learn to "pray always": first we must learn to "pray today"! Instead of spending our waking moments interiorly talking only to "ourselves," let our thoughts begin to stretch, reaching out so that we're talking to God instead! After all, at Baptism, the Holy Spirit comes to dwell within us—why not spend some quality time in conversation with our closest Guest? Pray today—a simple but essential step on the path toward God. From the Pastor's Pen

The teachings contained in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) remain in force and all are to follow these norms in the Archdiocese of St. Louis regardless of your personal preference.

GIRM no. 299:

The altar should be built separate from the wall, in such a way that it is possible to walk around it easily and that Mass can be celebrated at it facing the people, which is desirable wherever possible. Moreover, the altar should occupy a place where it is truly the center toward which the attention of the whole congregation of the faithful naturally turns. The altar should usually be fixed and dedicated.

GIRM no. 160:

The priest then takes the paten or ciborium and approaches the communicants, who usually come up in procession. It is not permitted for the faithful to take the consecrated Bread or the sacred chalice by themselves and, still less, to hand them on from one to another among themselves. The norm established for the Dioceses of the United States of America is that Holy Communion is to be received standing, unless an individual member of the faithful wishes to receive the Communion while kneeling (Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, Instruction, Redemptionis Sacramentum, March 25, 2004, no. 91).

When receiving Holy Communion, the communicant bows his or her head before the Sacrament as a gesture of reverence and receives the Body of the Lord from the minister. The consecrated host may be received either on the tongue or in the hand, at the discretion of each communicant. When Holy Communion is received under both kinds, the sign of reverence is also made before receiving the Precious Blood.
