Ambition – eager desire for success or power.
Humility – the state of being humble. Humble – low, meek. “Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.”

In today's Gospel we are reminded that “whoever wishes to be first will be the servant of all.” To follow Christ is to serve; to serve is to give up the worldly ambitions, to humble ourselves before God and his creation.

The world convinces us that if we are ambitious the world is ours for the taking, but today we are reminded that as followers of Christ our reward of this earth means to desire it not, to work not for something but for that which does not perish, to serve Him in all things.

Let us not fall for the trick that the devil works to instill in all of us, that we must be better than the other person by bringing low that person. Let us work to help others, let our actions support others and in doing so, in enriching the lives of others; in providing for them in feeding, clothing and sheltering them, we shall be made low in the eyes of the ambitious and in that humble state we are closest to our Lord and to our inheritance.

What does the world offer that we truly desire more than the love of our Father in heaven who stands ready to welcome us with open arms.

May the peace of Christ be in you,

Deacon Mark

Thank you Lord Jesus, Come Holy Spirit
