From the Pastor's Pen
Words of Wisdom

Please come to Mass early enough not to disrupt. Leave late enough not to insult. Worship reverently enough not to distract. Dress properly enough not to offend or give scandal.

Catholic University of America

This weekend's special collection is for The Catholic University of America. Your contributions will support scholarships for students in our diocese and others in achieving our mission of preparing the next generation of leaders for our Church and nation – including those studying to become our future priests and religious.

St. Vincent DePaul

St. Vincent DePaul Society thanks parishioners for their donations last month. During September, please bring canned soup, tuna fish, and pork & beans. Thank you.

Stewardship Reflections

"Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

Luke 14:33

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples

St. Joseph Festival

Included with the bulletin this weekend is a copy of our flyer for the 2016 St. Joseph Festival. Please help us advertise our Festival. We have posted articles online in our newspapers and community websites, but we need your help to get the word out to friends, family and co-workers. Thank you.
