Annual Catholic Appeal

A Message from Archbishop Carlson:

Stories reveal who we are. They bind us together and preserve our memories. Stories teach important lessons about life and faith. Every story - including yours - contributes to who we are as a Church and reveals Christ Himself to the world.

The Annual Catholic Appeal is one important way for us to share our story and to reach out to those who are suffering and in need, the weak and the abandoned, in every neighborhood and community in our archdiocese. Your generous response will help make possible many remarkable stories of hope and joy!

All of these stories tell one story...the story of Christ among us. Your support helps make the story of our Catholic Church in St. Louis complete. Please know that you and your loved ones are in my prayers.

Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson
Archbishop of St. Louis

We ask that you go downstairs after Mass and sign your pledge card.

Saint Mark, the Evangelist

The oldest and the shortest of the four Gospels, the Gospel of Mark emphasizes Jesus's rejection by humanity while being God's triumphant envoy. Probably written for gentile converts in Rome—after the death of Peter and Paul sometime between A.D. 60 and 70—Mark's Gospel is the gradual manifestation of a "scandal": a crucified Messiah. Like another Gospel writer Luke, Mark was not one of the 12 apostles. We cannot be certain whether he knew Jesus personally. Venice, famous for the Piazza San Marco, claims Mark as its patron saint; the large basilica there is believed to contain his remains.

A winged lion is Mark's symbol. The lion derives from Mark's description of John the Baptist as a "voice of one crying out in the desert" (Mark 1:3), which artists compared to a roaring lion. The wings come from the application of Ezekiel's vision of four winged creatures to the evangelists.

St. Joseph Parish Festival Meeting

Dynamic Catholic

Brothers and sisters, we are the children of God. Let that sink in... Consider the love a parent has for his or her child. Then, consider that God's love is infinitely greater than that. God the Father sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to be our Good Shepherd, the one who loves us so much as to lay down His life for us. In the context of evangelization, this provides us with much to ponder. If we are hesitant to evangelize, it can only be because we have not experienced God's love or doubt His love. The one who has experienced this great love has no choice but to share it with others, zealously and joyfully witnessing to how God has worked in one's life.

Stewardship Bible Reflections

"I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice." – JOHN 10:14-16 When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for the things that you want? Do you ever ask Him what He wants from you? How do you listen for His response? Usually, the answer is in "quiet whispers", so take time every day, in silence, to actively listen for His response.
